

Due to the high demand for accommodations we strongly recommend you reserve your room as soon as possible. No rooms have been set aside for attendees of the EXCITE International Summit. Below are some recommendations for hotels located near the Summit venue. If you require additional information or assistance, please contact EXCITE International Summit planners at info@exciteinternational.com.

Tabard Inn

The Tabard Inn is the oldest continuing running hotel in Washington DC opening its doors in 1922 by Marie Willoughby Rogers. The name Tabard Inn was drawn from Chaucer's Canterbury tales and the place would forever revive itself in the hospitality of an old English Manor. Please be specific with any requests or needs when reserving, note that there are no elevators in the building. The specific rooms in each category will be assigned the night before your arrival.

Capitol Skyline

In the heart of Washington DC's hottest new neighborhood, the Capitol Skyline Hotel redefines the notion of an urban chic hotel. First designed in 1962 by Morris Lapidus – architect of the renowned Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach – and recently refreshed by New York interior designer Scott Sanders – the creator of the Ralph Lauren Interior Design Department – our hotel boasts uber-chic architecture and interiors unlike any hotel in the nation's capital. We are located five blocks from the United States Capitol, a ten-minute walk from the Smithsonian and National Mall and just steps from Nationals Stadium, Audi Field, The Waterfront and Yard Park. We are also three blocks from Metro's Navy Yard Station, bringing all of DC directly to your doorstep. Capitalizing on this coveted setting, many of our guest rooms offer a breathtaking view of the Capitol dome through expansive windows.

Kimpton Hotel Monaco Washington DC

At Kimpton Hotel Monaco Washington DC, life gets painted with a vibrant brush and a colorful palette. Nothing is ordinary in our grand downtown building, built in 1839 as the city's original General Post Office. It's since been beautifully modernized (with a very recent refresh) to flawlessly meld the old and the new. Guests delight in our period architectural details, soaring ceilings, tall windows, and long, wide hallways that create an aura of drama and grandeur. At the same time, from the moment you enter our welcoming living room, you'll find that our style is eclectic, bold, and playful, and our service highly personable. In this warm and social environment, the lines between work and play often blur, and our delightful hospitality also carries over into our restaurant, bar, and coveted courtyard. Whether you're here for business or pleasure, you'll appreciate thoughtful and whimsical touches that make your stay luxurious and fun, and you'll covet our address in bustling Penn Quarter, too.
